

2018 Suggested Summer Reading Lists

The books represented on this list are a combination of enjoyable literature and historical pieces that will ready your child for the historical time period to be studied in the fall. Providence students will read (or be read aloud to) for the grade level they are entering in the fall. Students who follow this list will be more prepared for the 2018-2019 school year.

K4
It is important for young children to be exposed to books rich in rhyme, repetition, and language. It is also good to keep in mind books with number concepts and that introduce the alphabet.
